DizzyFish BIO

DizzyFish, lead by Eric Herbst, combines the energy of classic rock and the passion of the blues, with the subtlety of the human voice and the acoustic guitar to create live performances that keep the audience hanging on every note. In today's world of sampled music and auto-tune; DizzyFish stands apart with strong honest vocals and music played by real musicians on real instruments.

DizzyFish is a 5 piece live band with 2 Guitars, Bass, Drums and Keyboards. Though they also do Solo, Duo, Trio and Four piece performances in smaller venues. Eric has opened Solo for national acts like The Steve Miller Band & Rick Derringer. The DizzyFish set includes Eric's original music as well as passionate covers of classic songs from the wide range of its influences.

Eric Herbst (Lead Singer, Songwriter, Guitarist and Leader of the band) has written over 100 songs, including songs recorded by B.B. King and Johnny Cash. He is widely respected for his writing abilities, producing and passionate performances. Eric's songs have been compared to those of Neil Young, John Lennon, The Band and The Rolling Stones.

DizzyFish has recently recorded a new album of Eric's original music entitled DizzyFish - Swimming Up Stream. "I have done a lot of cool things in my music career, but this new record is the best thing I have ever done," says Herbst. The first single, Silver Sands was released on February 6th (Eric's Birthday). It represents his finally finding happiness and love on the beach in Milford Ct and wanting people to find and experience their own happiness. It's a surprisingly fun upbeat song with lyrics reminiscent of Bob Dylan that appeals to audiences of all ages.

The new album's second single, Footsteps of Angels, was written by Eric in the classic style of Elton John or Paul McCartney. It features Scott Guberman of Phil Lesh & Friends on piano, real gospel singers and real violins. Footsteps of Angels was mixed by 11 time Grammy winning producer, Jay Newland. Jay won his two most recent Grammys in 2016.

Eric, A staple artist of the CT music scene, has been a regular on Connecticut radio for the last 25 years. Eric performed as the Musical Director for the Smith & Barber morning show on WPLR 99.1 and as the leader of the WHCN 105.9 house band, Eric's Rapture.

Other DizzyFish Members Include: Scott Guberman: Piano & Organ, Mike Nunno: Bass, Tom Nagy: Drums, Mike Colavolpe: Guitar, Greg Marshall: Keyboards and Peter Blossom: Guitar. Blues legend Lucky Peterson performed as a special guest on DizzyFish's latest album.

Herbst's love of music was sparked at an early age when his older brothers first introduced him to the genius of the Beatles and The Rolling Stones. In his association with RRFC, Eric has had the honor of playing with several of his musical heroes such as Roger Daltrey (The Who), Robbie Krieger (The Doors), Jack Bruce (Cream), Bill Wyman (The Rolling Stones), Slash (Guns n Roses) Joe Walsh (The Eagles), and Nick Mason (Pink Floyd).

PRESS

"Eric plays Dead Flowers better than the Stones."

- Roger Daltrey, The Who

"In 25 years of doing radio, I have seen a lot of great bands and believe me DizzyFish is a great band!"

- Mike Lapitino, WPLR DJ

"I loved their ability to captivate the crowd and really throw down some thick improvisational stuff between their tunes."

- Dean Pivrotto, LiveBandTouring.com

"His acoustic renditions were a joy to listen to. Eric actually had one of those six degrees of separation connections to The Beatles."

- Robin Roberts, 2015 Feb 4 Music Festival
